Day 2: Tuesday 1 November, Auckland

- Wynyard Quarter
- Holy Trinity Cathedral & Bishop Selwyn Chapel (Fearon Hay Architects 2016)
- Auckland Domain Wintergardens (glass houses – exterior only due to ongoing renovation works)
- Lunch at the Tuitui Museum Bistro & Café
- Auckland War Memorial Museum: Guided Tour

- Gaggenau Tuesday Test Kitchen hosted at the French Kitchen: 6 course tasting menu (1830-2215hrs)

Today John Walsh accompanies us on a full day orientation tour of Auckland. From our hotel we travel to the Wynyard Quarter passing one of Auckland's most iconic buildings, West Plaza, designed by Neville Price. Its distinctive finned, sailed-shaped design won an enduring architecture award in 2005. The Wynyard Quarter, located on a reclaimed peninsula to the west of Auckland's CBD, comprises approximately 20 hectares of waterfront land and maritime structures including infrastructure to support the 36th Americas Cup held in the summer of 2021. Urban design elements include the North Wharf hospitality strip (Fearon Hay Architects, 2012) and Silo Park (re-purposed former cement storage silos). The Silo Marina is now New Zealand's premier superyacht marina as well as the berthage for classic wooden yachts from Auckland's designers/boatbuilders. We also view apartment buildings by Architectus, Athfield Architects and Studio of Pacific Architecture.

Situated in the residential suburb of Parnell lies Holy Trinity Cathedral, the mother church of the Anglican Diocese of Auckland. We take a guided architecture tour of the Cathedral, including the Bishop Selwyn Chapel. Designed by Fearon Hay Architects in 2016, the chapel features a gleaming, gold-tiled ceiling which floats over a transparent glass box.

From Parnell we travel to the Auckland Domain to visit the Wintergardens, which are of great historic interest. Designed in the 1920s by W.H Gummer in the style of Edwin Lutyens (for whom Gummer worked before the First World War) and Gertrude Jekyll, the two barrel-vaulted glass houses provide an ever-changing display of rare and spectacular plants. Note: the two glass houses are currently under renovation, and may therefore only be viewed from the exterior.

Within the Auckland Domain also lies Auckland War Memorial Museum Tamaki Paenga Hira, constructed in 1929. The Neo-Classical style museum's south atrium has recently undergone an extensive refurbishment – a design collaboration between Jasmx, Design Tribe, Salmond Reed Architects and Australian firm FJMT. The new South Atrium features a Noel Lane-designed Tanoa bowl and artwork by Ngati Whatua artist Graham Tipene. We will have lunch at the museum's new bistro-style restaurant designed by Jack McKinney and then take a private architecture tour of the building. In the Maori Court we also view the treasured collection of paintings by late nineteenth / early twentieth century artists Charles Fredrick Goldie and Gottfried Lindauer who were best known for their portrayal of Maori dignitaries and scenes of Maori life.

A drive up Mount Eden, Auckland's highest volcano, and a walk to the viewpoint provides spectacular views of the city and an interesting way to see a caldera. We will then return to the Britomart via Princes Street which features a number of interesting 19th-century merchant houses, a reminder that this was once one of Auckland's most prestigious residential areas. Nearby is the Northern Club, built in 1867 as a hotel and later established as a gentleman's club, and Old Government House.

This evening we attend the Gaggenau Tuesday Test Kitchen dinner hosted in the French Kitchen. Here we may enjoy the taste of chef Sid Sahrawat's two award-winning restaurants – Cassia and Sid at the French Café – under the one roof. "The Test Kitchen concept is designed for Sid and his chefs to innovate new dishes and solicit feedback from diners. Taking place on the first Tuesday of each month, three dishes from each restaurant will be prepared for diners in Sid at The French Café's private dining room, The French Kitchen. Over the course of the evening, guests will get to see Sahrawat doing what he does best, as he and his team cook, plate and introduce each dish.." (Overnight Auckland) BLD

- # 3 House, Remuera: Private home of architect Paul Clarke, Studio2 Architects

As New Zealand's population continues to grow and plots reduce in size, urban living is being redefined. Accompanied by John Walsh, we spend the day visiting the private homes of some of New Zealand's leading architects, including Pete Bossley and his partner Miriam van Wezel, Guy Tarrant, Richard Naish, Dave Strachan and Paul Clarke, to see how they design contemporary inner city homes. We also visit Diagrid House, a home built by the owner, and designed by Jack McKinney. (Overnight Auckland) B

Day 4: Thursday 3 November, Auckland

- The Shelter: Meet with founder, Vicki Taylor
- Objectspace: Introduction to exhibitions by Director, Kim Paton
- Michael Lett: Hosted by Gallery Co-ordinator, Victoria Wynn-Jones
- St Kevin's Arcade
- Anna Miles Gallery & meeting with Warwick Freeman
- Neville Findlay at Zambesi Britomart

This morning we visit the residential district of Ponsonby, known for its dining, stylish boutiques, bookshops and trendy cafés. We begin with a visit to The Shelter, a contemporary space of like-minded design-led brands curated by Vicki Taylor.

Nearby is Objectspace, a public art gallery, described as New Zealand's new 'home of craft, design and architecture'. Founded by jeweller Warwick Freeman in 2004, Objectspace expanded and moved to its new, larger space in 2017. This new gallery is housed in a former industrial warehouse that was refurbished by architect Rich Naish of RTA Studio.

Next we visit Michael Lett, a contemporary art gallery operated by Michael Lett and Andrew Thomas, who previously worked at London's White Cube Gallery. The gallery which opened in 2003 and is housed in a former private bank built in 1928, represents both emerging and established artists including Paul Lee, Jim Allen, Hany Armanious, Eve Armstrong, Dan Arps, Steve Carr and Fiona Clark. Our visit will be hosted by Gallery Coordinator, Victoria Wynn-Jones.

Following some time at leisure for lunch at St Kevin's Arcade we visit the Anna Miles Gallery. Anna's gallery, which focuses on contemporary New Zealand art, represents critical and influential artists working in a diverse range of media. During the time of our visit there will be an exciting exhibition by artist, Johanna Pegler, along with works by Warwick Freeman. On arrival Anna will introduce us to the exhibition and to a selection of work by artists including Richard Stratton, Isobel Thom, Peter Hawkesby (who work with ceramics), Vita Cochran (who works with textiles), and Octavia Cook and Warwick Freeman (who work with jewellery).

Warwick Freeman's work has played an elemental part in the cultivation and recognition of New Zealand contemporary jewellery. Through the use of materials collected from his immediate and wider natural environment, Freeman creates work that explores themes of national identity and place. Freeman was part of the seminal Bone Stone Shell exhibition in 1988 and has since gone on to exhibit internationally. His work is in the permanent collections of the National Gallery of Australia, Museum of Fine Arts Boston and Stedelijk Museum in Amsterdam, among many others. Warwick has kindly agreed to meet with our group at the Anna Miles Gallery to discuss his work.

We end the day with a visit to the Zambesi Britomart flagship store where we meet with Neville Findlay. Founded by designers Elisabeth and Neville Findlay in 1979, Zambesi is one of New Zealand's most iconic labels, known for its directional designs. The NZ Fashion Museum states "Hallmarks include intelligent, unexpected use of fabric and layers, impeccable tailoring and finishing, and an often dark colour palette, supplemented with lighter pieces and delicate fabrics designed in-house". (Overnight Auckland) B

Day 5: Friday 4 November Auckland – Waiheke Island – Auckland

- Return ferry excursion to Waiheke Island
- Tent House, Oneroa, private home of Chris Tate, Chris Tate Architecture
- Lunch at Tantalus Estate (Cheshire Architects)
- Awaawaroa Bay Project, presented by project architect, Sarah Gilbertson, Cheshire Architects

We depart early this morning, taking the short 40-minute ferry ride across to Waiheke Island, a haven of beautiful vineyards, olive groves and beaches. On arrival we meet with Chris Tate (Chris Tate Architecture) who has kindly agreed to show us his 'Tent House' which he designed for his weekend/personal retreat/studio. Located in a native rainforest, this experimental project challenges the notion of what a weekend house should be.

Next, we meet with one of the project architects from Cheshire Architects, the practice responsible for the extensive renovation of an old winery building at Tantalus Estate. The project also features lighting by James Russ who used uprooted vines from the estate and more than 4,500 miniature LEDs, handwoven into the vines with exposed copper wire. We will enjoy a 2-course menu with paired wines at the Estate's fine restaurant.

In the afternoon we meet with project architect, Sarah Gilbertson (also from Cheshire Architects) for a tour of the Awaawaroa Bay Project, a site abounding in natural views. The project features three forms, which each speak to its function and respond to the terrain in differing ways.

We return to Auckland by ferry in the late afternoon where the evening is at leisure. (Overnight Auckland) BL

Tutukaka Coast – night

Day 6: Saturday 5 November, Auckland – Matakana – Whangarei – Whale Bay – Tutukaka

- Matakana Farmers Market
- Light lunch at the Aqua Restaurant & Bar, Hundertwasser Art Centre
- Hundertwasser Art Centre & Wairau Maori Art Gallery, Whangarei
- Bowden House, Tutukaka (Belinda George Architects)
- Whale Bay
- Dinner at the Schnappa Rock Restaurant

We depart Auckland early this morning and travel an hour north to Matakana. Here, there will be time at leisure to explore this lively organic Farmers Market which features locally sourced vegetables, fruit and baked goods.

Further north lies Whangarei, capital of the Northland region, whose harbour entrance was first sighted by Europeans on James Cook's first voyage in the Endeavour in November 1769. Here we visit the Hundertwasser Arts Centre. This new centre, which includes the Wairau Maori Art Gallery, opened in December 2021. The project, which converts the former Northland Harbour Board building into an arts centre, was designed by Friedensreich Hundertwasser in 1993. The centre is home to Hundertwasser's art, the only permanent collection outside of Vienna, as well as the Wairau gallery, the world's first gallery dedicated solely to contemporary Maori art. Friedensreich Hundertwasser was an Austrian painter, architect and ecological activist who made an important contribution to art history's post war modernism. He was an active contributor to the avant-garde scene in Paris during the 1950s. For the last decades of his life he lived near Kawakawa, an hour north of Whangarei. He died in 2000 aged 71 aboard the Queen Elizabeth II. We will tour the centre and enjoy a light lunch at the centre's Aqua Restaurant & Bar.

Mid-afternoon we visit Bowden House, a 2020 Auckland Architecture Awards Winner, which sits on a cliff edge on the Tutukaka Coast. Designed by Belinda George Architects in association with Mandeno Design, this stunning cedar-clad house is an outstanding project. "The semi-circular plan nestles into the site, and the curved form conveys a sense of spatial coherence. The house's natural rhythm allows for spaces that connect with each other, and the environment. The material palette is beautifully resolved and perfectly articulated to fit the crescent moon shape." [www.nzia.co.nz/awards/]

We end the day with a walk to Whale Bay, an idyllic white sand, bush-fringed beach accessed by a 30min walking track through groves of ancient Puriritrees.

Following check-in at the Quality Hotel Oceans, we dine together at the rustic Schnappa Rock Restaurant which overlooks Tutukaka Harbour. (Overnight Tutukaka) BLD

Auckland – 4 nights

Day 7: Sunday 6 November, Tutukaka Coast – Point Wells – Snells Beach – Mahurangi – Auckland

- Point Wells Gables, Point Wells (Pac Studio 2017)
- Private project, Point Wells (Pac Studio 2021)
- Point Wells Cricket Club, (Pac Studio 2020)
- Brick Bay Winery and Sculpture Trail: Lunch at the Glass House Kitchen, Snells Beach
- Pukapuka Road Project, private home of architect Belinda George, Mahurangi

Pac Studio are a youngish practice based in Auckland who have designed two interesting projects on a property at Point Wells near Matakana: a house – Point Wells Gables – and the Point Wells Cricket Club, both award-winning works. Following our tour of these projects we continue to the small coastal town of Snells Beach.

At the Brick Bay Winery we enjoy lunch at the Glass House Kitchen which showcases contemporary New Zealand cuisine inspired by their farm produce and orchards. There will be time at leisure to follow the 2km sculpture trail which features over 60 artworks in a setting of native bush, ponds and open spaces.

Belinda George, who founded her practice in 1996, concentrates primarily on residential and small-scale commercial projects. This afternoon we visit her own home which was inspired by its rural setting. "The house is a cluster of separate buildings arranged around a central courtyard and joined with glazed walkways. Much like a collection of vernacular buildings purposefully random in shape and size dependent upon function. The palette of materials follows this logic as well, comprising of galvanized corrugated iron cladding and totara weatherboards left to naturally weather. The interior is lined with native timbers (rimu, kahikatea, and matai) salvaged from the Northland rivers." (Overnight Auckland) BL

Day 8: Monday 7 November, Auckland – Piha Beach – Takapuna – Narrow Neck – Devonport – Auckland

- Lifeguard Tower, Piha Beach (Crosson Architects 2022)
- Under Pohutukawa, Piha Beach (Herbst Architects 2011)
- Lunch at the Piha Café
- Takapuna Beach House, Takapuna (Bossley Architects)
- 'Clifftops House', Takapuna (Bossley Architects)
- Narrow Neck House home of the late David Mitchell and his partner Julie Stout (Mitchell Stout Dodd Architects)
- Ferry from Devonport back to Auckland

We spend the day visiting a number of award-winning beach houses. Piha is a scenic black-sand surf beach on the rugged coast west of Auckland. Here, we visit Under Pohutukawa by Herbst Architects, and the recipient of several awards including the NZIA Auckland Architecture Award and HOME Magazine Home of the Year Award. Accompanied by Ken Crosson, principal of Crosson Architects, we also view Piha's new brutalist lifeguard tower which is part of a $4.3 million project to renew the surf club facilities. The eight-metre tall concrete tower is shaped in a cylinder and designed to give "unobstructed views" across the beach. Most recently Crosson Architects was shortlisted at the World Architecture Festival Awards for the watchtower design.

Takapuna, a vibrant beachside destination, lies on the North Shore of Auckland overlooking Waitematā Harbour. Its white sand beach looks out across to the Hauraki Gulf and iconic Rangitoto Island. Here we view two projects by Bossley Architects including Clifftops House which features an impressive international art collection. This project has just won the 2022 City Home of the Year Award and the 2022 Interior Home of the Year Award. It has also been shortlisted for the NZIA Auckland Awards, whose results will be published in August.

We end the day with a visit to the home of the late David Michell and his partner Julie Stout, at Narrow Neck. This two-dwelling project occupies an elevated beachside location which provide great views over the harbour. In the late afternoon we take the short ferry ride from Devonport back to our hotel in the Britomart. (Overnight Auckland) BL

Day 9: Tuesday 8 November, Auckland

- Studio of contemporary craft practitioner, Christopher Duncan
- Joe Yen at TÜR studio
- Simon James Design \(SJD\): Meeting with Simon James and Scott Bridgens
- Home of Tony Watkins, Karaka Bay

This morning we are fortunate to visit the private studio of contemporary craft practitioner Christopher Duncan who specialises in hand weaving textiles. Duncan's work is exhibited throughout New Zealand, Japan, Belgium and the USA and is held in the collections of Auckland Museum Tamaki Paenga Hira.

We also visit TÜR studio the combined studio and gallery space of designer Joseph Yen. The studio showcases his own work alongside contemporary ceramics, handmade textiles and jewellery from fellow practitioners. Joseph, who works in clothing design and silver, will give us a talk on the studio and his own designs.

At the Simon James Design (SJD) showroom we meet with Simon James and Scott Bridgens who co-founded Resident, a globally focused furniture and lighting company in 2011. More recently Simon has established his own showroom, while Scott continues as Managing Director of Resident whose products are also on display at the SJD showroom.

This afternoon we visit the home of architect, lecturer, urban designer, maritime planner, writer and environmentalist, Tony Watkins whose home is located in Karaka Bay at the mouth of the Tamaki River. Hidden amongst the trees, and located on a steep site, his home consists of a collection of structures rather than a single building, connected by stone paths. One part nestles under the limbs of a huge pohutukawa (New Zealand Christmas tree) built on tall stilts to avoid damaging the tree's roots.

In 2019 Tony was a recipient of the NZIA President's Award. "Over the course of 50 years, Tony has demonstrated a tireless commitment to engaging with the public about architecture and reminding the profession of its societal and ethical responsibilities..... Tony was an early and prescient lobbyist for ecological protection and humane city planning, and throughout his career has never been afraid to challenge orthodox opinion or vested interests. He has lived his principles in his always-evolving, self-built house at Karaka Bay, and has contributed wholeheartedly to countless causes and campaigns over his long career in architecture." Day 10: Wednesday 9 November, Auckland

- Auckland Art Gallery Toi O Tamaki
- Fingers Contemporary New Zealand Jewellery: Presentation by jeweller Alan Preston
- Afternoon at leisure
- Farewell dinner at Mr Morris at Britomart (Cheshire Architects)

We begin this morning with a guided tour of the Auckland Art Gallery, home to one of the most important collections of European Old Masters in the South Pacific. Most recently it completed an extension by Australia's Richard Francis-Jones (FJMT) with Auckland architects Archimedia, making it one of the most exciting contemporary buildings in the city. Our one hour guided tour will include:

- Romancing the Collection – a wide-ranging display from the permanent collection across a range of mediums, ranging from Maori portraits from the 19th century to 20th century sculptures. Various subsections of this exhibition (across multiple rooms) will encompass themes of portraiture, abstraction, still life and love.
- Manpower: Myths of Masculinity – an exhibition focusing on masculinity and the male body, as portrayed in classical through to Victorian times, with some more modern 20th century works. The exhibition includes paintings, works on paper, or sculpture.
- Robin White: Te Whanaketanga | Something is Happening Here – an exhibition of works from NZ artist Dame Robin White's 50-year career.
- Walls to Live Beside, Rooms to Own: The Chartwell Show – a contemporary show from a range of artists (mostly NZ/Australia), utilising and responding to domestic and home architecture environments. Strongly sculptural/installation based.

- Three major, longstanding commissions by Māori artists which are built into the facades or architecture of the building.
- 'Guide Kaiarahi' which is a ten-metre-high waka designed by Reuben Paterson. Made of 595 shimmering crystals, this sculpture rises vertically from the Gallery's forecourt pool.

Following our guided tour there will be time at leisure to further explore the gallery's collection. You may wish to visit the Frida Kahlo & Diego Rivera special exhibition (at own cost) which will be on display on Level 1 of the building.

This afternoon we visit Fingers, a contemporary jewellery gallery, where we meet Alan Preston, one of New Zealand's leading jewellers. Alan was one of the first contemporary New Zealand jewellers to use Pacific influences and expression in his work. His knowledge and ability in the cutting of shell enables him to produce beautiful wearable art works. Using gold and black-lipped oyster shell, paua and vau (hibiscus bark fibre) Alan creates breastplates, bangles, necklaces, brooches and earrings. A retrospective exhibition of his work was held at TheNewDouse Art Museum in Lower Hutt in 2007.

Following an afternoon at leisure we enjoy a farewell dinner at Mr Morris, run by one of New Zealand's most renowned chefs, Michael Meredith. (Overnight Auckland) BD

Physical Endurance & Practical Information

Physical Ratings

The number of flags is a guide to the degree of difficulty of ASA tours relative to each other (not to those of other tour companies). It is neither absolute nor literal. One flag is given to the least taxing tours, seven to the most. Flags are allocated, above all, according to the amount of walking and standing each tour involves. Nevertheless all ASA tours require that participants have a good degree of fitness enabling 2-3 hours walking or 1-1.5 hours standing still on any given site visit or excursion. Many sites are accessed by climbing slopes or steps and have uneven terrain.

This 11-day tour involves:

- A moderate amount of walking often up and down hills and/or flights of stairs.
- The daily schedule often involves an early-morning departure (between 8.00-8.30am), concluding in the late afternoon (between 5.30-6.30pm).
- You must be able to carry your own hand luggage. Hotel portage includes 1 piece of luggage per person.
- A moderate amount of coach travel, several on winding mountainous roads. Transport by public ferry on Day 5 and Day 8.

It is important to remember that ASA programs are group tours, and slow walkers affect everyone in the group. As the group must move at the speed of the slowest member, the amount of time spent at a site may be reduced if group members cannot maintain a moderate walking pace. ASA tours should not present any problem for active people who can manage day-to-day walking and stair-climbing. However, if you have any doubts about your ability to manage on a program, please ask your ASA travel consultant whether this is a suitable tour for you.

Please note: it is a condition of travel that all participants agree to accept ASA's directions in relation to their suitability to participate in activities undertaken on the tour, and that ASA retains the sole discretion to direct a tour participant to refrain from a particular activity on part of the tour. For further information please refer to the Terms and Conditions section given below.

Prior to departure, tour members will receive practical notes which include information on visa requirements, health, photography, weather, clothing and what to pack, custom regulations, bank hours, currency regulations, electrical appliances and food. It will also assist you and ASA if you fall ill or have an accident whilst travelling.

I am aware of ASA's terms as relating to refunds, cancellations, responsibility and liability. I understand that ASA relies upon this declaration when considering this Application. I accept the inherent dangers, risks and uncertainties in travel and those beyond ASA's control and understand they may occur before or during any tour. I have made full and complete disclosure and have not knowingly withheld any medical information about myself from ASA. I have completed this Reservation Application honestly and accurately. I warrant that I am able to participate independently in all activities described by ASA in the itinerary without assistance from any person.

I will advise ASA in writing if any aspect of my fitness and or health conditions change materially at any time before my departure date. I understand and accept that the itinerary, accommodation and lecturers scheduled for this tour may change.

I agree and consent that ASA may give my personal information in this Reservation Application to tour service providers and relevant authorities as required by law, but only for the purpose of making bookings with and engaging services associated with the tour. I understand that if I do not consent to the use of my personal information for this purpose, ASA will decline my Reservation Application.

In consideration of ASA's acceptance of my Reservation Application, I irrevocably release and indemnify ASA from all claims that I, or any other party, may have against ASA its employees, invitees, agents and contractors, however arising in respect of any loss, damage, injury, death or expense incurred in the course of booking, preparing for, travelling to, on and from or cancelling any tour.

Limitation of Liability

ASA is not a carrier, event or tourist attraction host, accommodation or dining service provider. All bookings made and tickets or coupons issued by ASA for transport, event, accommodation, dining and the like are issued as an agent for various service providers and are subject to the terms and conditions and limitations of liability imposed by each service provider. ASA is not responsible for their products, services, terms and conditions. If a service provider cancels or does not deliver the product or service for which you have contracted, and does not give a refund, your remedy lies with the service provider, not ASA.
